TERMS AND CONDITIONS

QUICK POINTS

You are required to have completed the online order that includes your acceptance of the Hire Charge, the Hire Period and the terms of these Conditions.

This is an “electronic contract” and you are deemed to have read and understood these Conditions of Business so that such Conditions shall apply in full.

In the circumstances where the risks have been placed on the Customer this is because the Customer is better placed than John R Cooper to insure against loss or damage connected in any way with the Equipment or personnel supplied under these Conditions of Business.

The Customer shall be deemed to have in place an insurance policy covering the range of the risks inherent in the project for which they are using the Equipment or in which they are employing the personnel supplied and it would be impractical for John R. Cooper to enter into a separate policy of insurance every time he hires a piece of equipment to cover losses arising in a project in which he is not directly involved.

If the Equipment (excluding the consumable Equipment) shall be lost stolen destroyed or damaged so as to be incapable of economic repair in the opinion of any insurers of such Equipment any cost payable under any policy of insurance shall be applied in replacing such equipment and if such cost is insufficient the Customer shall be responsible for meeting the balance.
